

Teacher of English Literature

KS3 & KS4

Part-time

Start date: September 2023

The King's School is a warm and friendly environment, with small class sizes, offering you the opportunity to enjoy teaching and develop your skills, all in a beautiful, rural setting. We have a passionate staff team, who work together to create a learning space for our pupils that challenges and inspires, whilst providing outstanding pastoral care. As teachers in a Christian school, we are able to encourage our pupils in their journey of faith and model a relationship with Jesus that is real and relevant. It is this all-encompassing approach – academic progress, character, faith – that makes our school such a special place to work in.

As teacher of English Literature, you will have the opportunity to inspire our pupils in their study of prose and poetry, whether it be Shakespeare or more modern texts. You will be responsible for our GCSE course, which currently starts during Year 9 to fully cover all four aspects of the course. There is one class per year group, each with two lessons, so the minimum you will teach is 6 x 50 min lessons, likely spread over parts of two days. There is some flexibility for a suitable candidate looking for more hours than this. A scheme of work is in place and you will have the opportunity to shape the English Literature curriculum as you grow into the role, ensuring that our pupils continue to have a broad and dynamic learning experience.

The King's School has its own pay scale, with contributions to an employer's pension scheme and healthcare cover available to all staff. Further details, along with an application pack, including job description, are available from the school: Call 01582 767566 or request by email to: kings.pa@thekingsschool.com
